

I am opposed to the FCC propping to expand the LPFM service in any way to where they have priority over the current FM translator service. This is just another way of taking away the rights of Christians. K-Love is a family oriented station. We as Christians should have a choice to hear the national radio station, K-Love.

I feel that it is in the best interest of this country to maintain some Christian radio stations such as K-Love.